Our very hard work and commitment is paying off spectacularly and the upcoming sale promises to be one of the best. The community has donated more than 13,000 books AND thousands of children's book for our sale; inventory quality is higher than ever before; books are shelved and sorted by category.

Hours:

- Saturday, July 20: 9 AM - 4 PM. Only FOBL Members may enter from 9 AM-10:30 AM; you can join at the door. Everyone can shop between 10:30am - 4:00pm.
- Sunday, July 21: 1:00 - 4:00pm. All books are half-price.

Our July sale will also feature some free books!

Membership:

The return of our Book Sale is great news and, of course, your membership assures you early (9:00 - 10:30am on July 20) admission to the sales. Along with proceeds from the book sales, your membership further contributes to our primary mission of supporting programs of the Bend Libraries. So thank you for your membership!

Art Exhibit:

The theme of our next exhibit of works by local artists is "Farms". If you have items to display, they will be accepted on Wednesday, July 10 in the Hutchinson Room (Downtown branch) between 4:00 and 5:30. Your works would be shown in addition to 10 photo collages of Central Oregon farms on loan by Central Oregon Locavore by photographers Amanda Conde and Amanda Long.

FriendShop:

Now that tote bags are replacing plastic bags in Bend, please take a look at the FOBL tote bags in the Friendshop. Fold three of them and stash them in a fourth especially for those days that you stop for a half dozen items and end up with 3 dozen. Toting groceries in such a classy bag will be so cool that you will not forget your bags any more. You might even like one for library books - a mere $4 with the FOBL logo.

Also, we just received a new shipment of purses, large and small, and coin purses--worth the wait, come see!

Welcome to Our New Board Member, Max Perkins!

I am honored to be working with the FOBL and serving as board secretary. My professional career has been in healthcare specifically occupational therapy and I continue to be involved in education and training. Travel is a passion for me along with outdoor activities. The Bend Library is such a great resource for our community and one that I use on a regular basis.
